Northern	03/12/2018 late submission	CV	£8.47	Public	A token of appreciation for all the kind help a member of the public received from the Neighbourhood Policing Team in Morpeth.	A copy of a book - Jonathan Livingston Seagull, The Complete Edition by Richards Bach and a small rubber stress ball	Accepted	Developing community relations and to refuse would be discourteous.
Motor Patrols	21/01/2019	PC	£28.00	Public	Work in relation to investigation and family liaison matters for a serious injury road traffic collision.	1/2 bottle of gin & Christmas card	Accepted	Offer was accepted to avoid embarrassment to the family and to maintain good family liaison relations.
Northern	18/01/2019	PC	£5.00	Organisation	Whilst making crime related enquiries the officer and the member of the public shared a mutual interest in old automotive oil cans and signage, at which the officer was presented with the item.	1950's / 60's aluminium vehicle 'GB' sign was offered.	Accepted	Gift was accepted as the member of public wanted the officer to have it. To refuse would be discourteous.
Safeguarding	01/12/2018 late submission	SGT	£4.50	Organisation	A company offered a travel mug containing a relevant training acronym to serve as a reminder for negotiators.	1 Travel Mug	Accepted	The gift was of relatively no value, there were no company logos on it and it will certainly be useful to the Negotiator.
Central	17/12/2018 late submission	PCSO	£14.00	Organisation	The offer was made out of kindness and appreciation of the work, time and effort to check on lone workers.	Case of beer and 2 boxes of chocolates	Accepted	Gift was initially declined but the giver refused to take it back. To further refuse the gift may have been discourteous.
Northern	21/01/2019	SUPT	£50.00	Organisation	Although the value of the offer is one which is of a higher value than normal, due to the event organised annually, hosted and attended by organisations the police are in partnership with.	A meal and overnight stay relating to networking with partner agencies	Accepted	The offer is one which is genuine and transparent.
