

Area Command /Dept	Date offered	Recipient	Value (£)	Donor	Details of Circumstances	Nature of Gift /Hospitality	Accepted /Declined	Disposal /Rationale
Central	28/06/2019	PC	£7.00	Public	The officer, together with a social worker, assisted a member of the public understand the Youth Offending Team processes to aid support for her son. The officer also assisted by communicating in Portuguese with the member of the public, enabling her to have a voice as a concerned parent.	A hand decorated wine bottle	Accepted	The offer was made very much in line with the culture of the member of the public and therefore to refuse may have caused offence.
Crime	16/072019	DCI	£10.00	Public	A thank you from the family of a murder victim following the successful prosecution of the offenders in the case.	Bottle of Prosecco	Accepted	The gift had been accepted in the officer's absence whilst on annual leave. It was accepted as to refuse may have offended the family of the deceased.
Crime	16/07/2019	DC	£10.00	Public	A thank you from the family of a murder victim following the successful prosecution of the offenders in the case.	Bottle of Prosecco	Accepted	The gift was accepted as to refuse may have offended the family of the deceased.
Crime	04/07/2019	DC	£30.00	Organisation	The organisation was subject to fraud from a previous employee. The gift was made to the Officer in Charge (OIC) of the investigation that subsequently led to a successful conviction.	Hendricks Gin	Accepted	The gift was received by post, signed for and accepted by front office staff. The OIC was unaware of the content until it was received. It was accepted in good will, as to refuse may have caused offence.