

Area Command / Department	Date offered	Recipient's Rank	Value (£)	Donor	Details of Circumstances	Nature of Gift / Hospitality	Accepted / Declined	Rationale for acceptance
Southern	19/12/2020	DC	£12.00	Public	Whilst off duty, an officer was out walking with their family at Linhope Spout when the doner fell down the side of a waterfall breaking their knee in 2 places and damaging their ACL.. They was unable to get off the hill. The officer assisted in first aid and reassuring the doner's spouse, as the officer's spouse went to raise the alarm due to no phone signal. The doner was assisted by Mountain Rescue and taken to hospital. The officer and their family then escorted the doner's spouse back to their motor vehicle.	X2 bottles of wine and a Thank you card.	Accepted	The offer was accepted because, it was a small gift of appreciation for providing help and support.
Central	08/01/2021	SGT	£6.00	Public	To show appreciation for the Police and the work that they are doing during the pandemic and the difficult situations they face.	X2 Boxes of Marks & Spencers biscuits	Accepted	It would cause offence to the member of public not to accept the offer
Southern	18/12/2020	PC	£15.00	Teachers at Bamburgh School.	The school had a project in the run up to Christmas to acknowledge 'heroes of the pandemic' and they decided to acknowledge the Police. The students wrote letters to Police to express their thanks to serving officers.	A hamper which consisted of tea, coffee and biscuits.	Accepted	This was a low value, very nice offer from a local school that caters for pupils with special educational needs. The local NPT have a good professional relationship with the school and it would have been disrespectful to decline the offer.
